professional, using a readable font and layout.

2. Scene Headings (Sluglines)

Scene headings are crucial in establishing the setting and time of each scene. They typically include:

- Interior (INT.) or Exterior (EXT.)
- Location: Specific place (e.g., "Living Room," "Park")
- Time of Day: Day or Night, sometimes with additional details (e.g., "Sunset," "Morning")

Sample: INT. COFFEE SHOP - DAY

Purpose: Clearly communicates scene changes for directors and stage managers.

3. Character Names and Dialogue

This section is the core of the script.

Character Names: Capitalized and centered above dialogue.

Dialogue: Indented and formatted to distinguish from directions.

Parentheticals: Brief cues for tone or action within dialogue (used sparingly).

Example: JOHN (whispering) Are you sure about this?

Tips: Keep dialogue natural and stage-appropriate. Use parentheticals only when necessary to clarify tone or delivery.

4. Stage Directions

Stage directions provide guidance on movement, gestures, expressions, and scene settings. They are typically italicized or placed within brackets to distinguish them from dialogue.

Sample: John paces nervously. or [John glances at the clock, anxious.]

Best practices: Be concise but descriptive. Focus on actions that influence the scene or character development. Avoid over-direction; trust actors and directors to interpret performances.

5. Transitions

Transitions like "CUT TO:" or "FADE IN:" indicate scene changes or time lapses, guiding the production team.

Common transitions: CUT TO: FADE IN: FADE OUT: BLACKOUT: These are typically aligned to the left margin and used sparingly.

6. Additional Elements

Depending on the complexity of your play, your template can include:

- Character List: For plays with many characters, listing names and brief descriptions.
- Act and Scene Divisions: Clearly marking acts and scenes for longer plays.
- Annotations: Space for director or actor notes during rehearsals.
